Heifer Beef Lower, Steer Beef Steady In Monday Trade

Des Moines, Aug. 29 (P-S) - Central U.S. carlot beef report includes the major production areas in the Midwest. Texas-Oklahoma Panhandle) as of 4:00 p.m. Compared to Friday's 4:00 report: Steer carcasses steady, heifer $1.00

Fed Cattle Prices Lower, Swine Sag At Markets Monday

Around the central markets on Monday, fed steers and heifers were steady at best, but weak to 60 cents or $1 lower generally. Carcass beef trade opened slow and heifer beef lower again. Market supplies of slaughter cattle were about 1,000 larger than a week ago. Monday's estimated cattle kill at 132,000 was 10,000 above a week ago and 8,000 above a year earlier. Slaughter cows and bulls were little changed at most of the markets.

U.S. Efforts to Reduce Excess Farm Products Thwarted by Gains in Other Countries, Trade Carriers

Secy. of Agriculture John Block returned from a Central and South American tour recently. Countries visited included Argentina, Brazil, Venezuela, Guatemala and El Salvador. The only beef cattle representative on the trip was James Grote, manager of the Granite Hills Ranch, Llano, Texas. Block made several talks while visiting those countries the principal ones being Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro to the American Chambers of Commerce in those nations.

The thrust of his messages at all of these countries was world agricultural trade and present problems and problems of the future. Portions of the statements included these. Block stressed the need for joint efforts to enhance world exports.

At Buenos Aires he said: "Our farm systems are linked in many significant respects. Both countries have similar climates and soils in many regions, which makes it profitable for us to team up on cooperative research in science and technology."

"We have market-oriented agricultural systems - and our farmers are geared to selling in world markets. And even when, as exporters of grains and oilseeds, we find ourselves in direct competition for the same customers, we also are linked in our common need for an international marketing system that promotes stable and sustainable long-term growth."

"Right now, world markets are in somewhat of a disarray - a result of over-production of many commodities and trade practices that are restricting or distorting the flows of trade."

"Last year, world farmers harvested over 30 crops of grains, oilseeds, and cotton. During the last crop season, the global recession, the heavy debt loads of many prospective importers, and an increase in protectionist trade policies resulted in little, if any, growth in world trade - in marked contrast to the rapid gains of the 1970's."

"As a consequence, world stocks of many agricultural commodities have mounted to serious levels and prices are lower. In some countries, the pressure to dispose of surpluses has led to heavy export subsidies. This puts a serious strain on national treasuries - as well as on the relationships between nations competing for markets."

"And the economists who work for me in the U.S. Department of Agriculture say we can't expect much improvement in the upcoming marketing year. World demand for agricultural products in 1983/84 is expected to continue stagnant or declining. However, only the United States has made any effort to cut back output so as to move the world's agricultural economy toward the balance necessary for orderly trade.

"This crop year, we have established a U.S. government farm program known as PIR that pays farmers with stockpiled commodities for cutting back on plantings. Through PIR, the United States is reducing its prospective output of grains by 22 percent, oilseeds by 14 percent, and cotton by 5 percent."

"This represents a tremendous - and successful - effort on the part of the U.S. government and U.S. farmers to do their part to move the world agricultural economy toward the balance necessary for orderly trade."

"But our efforts are being offset by production increases elsewhere. Output of grains, oilseeds, and cotton outside the United States is expected to increase once again in 1983/84 to new record highs. As a consequence, world supply and demand is going to continue out of balance for another year."

"Trade policy problems are another area of great concern to the U.S. agricultural sector. Hardly a week goes by when we aren't involved in discussion in some part of the world on some agricultural commodity. And recent months have seen some substantial progress."

At Rio de Janeiro among Block's statements were these: "Brazil is one of the United States' most significant markets for wheat and, in turn, is our principal supplier of agricultural imports. It also is one of our stiffest competitors in the international marketplace."

"This marketplace is under great strain right now from the severe imbalance in the supply of and demand for agricultural products."

TRA Charges Seven With Bid-Rigging

Austin - The State of Texas has filed suit against four crop-dusting companies and three individuals that the Texas Department of Agriculture charged with rigging bids on a state contract earlier this year.

This suit, filed Wednesday by Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox, alleges that the defendants conspired to suppress and eliminate competition for a contract to apply an insecticide to portions of Kendall and Kerr Counties in the spring of this year. The state is seeking treble damages from the defendants.

Additionally, the Texas Department of Agriculture is investigating the possibility of suspending or cancelling

Simmental National Sale Set For 1984

Bozeman, Mt. For the first time since 1976, the American Simmental Association will again designate and conduct a National Sale. The event is scheduled for January 19, 1984 and will be held in conjunction with National Western activities in Denver, Colorado. Transco Livestock Services, Inc. has been selected as the sale management firm.

"The Board of Trustees has decided to reinstitute The National Sale, and has chosen the Denver National Western as the site," said Earl B. Peterson, Executive Vice President. "The Colorado Simmental Association has agreed to relinquish their National Trendsetter Sale held each year at the National Western, in favor of The National and we appreciate their willingness to cooperate in this manner."

Peterson pointed out that preliminary plans call for 80 head of purebred Simmental and Simbrah, including both bulls and females, to be consigned. All cattle nominated will be appraised and selected on the farm in order to meet rigid quality standards.

All animals in the Sale will be blood typed and their parentage verified prior to the date of Sale. Full performance data, including estimated breeding value, will be published on all cattle.

"We are expecting that breeders will consign their very best animals to this event," Peterson said. "Emphasis will be placed upon parentage, predictable genetics and carefully selected individuals for what should be the top quality Simmental-Simbrah sale attraction of the year."

Mexican Propane Tanks Pose Hazard To Texans

Austin — Texans crossing the border to take advantage of low propane prices in Mexico may be risking explosion and fire if they bring the fuel back in Mexican-manufactured tanks, according to the Railroad Commission's Liquefied Petroleum Gas Division.
Liquefied petroleum gas cylinders manufactured in Mexico do not meet code standards of the U.S. Department of Transportation or the Commission's LP-Gas Safety rules, according to Hugh Kasper, LP-Gas Division Director.
Carrying these cylinders in cars, pickups, or vans is very dangerous and could result in fire or explosion if the cylinder valve accidentally opens or is tampered with, he said.
Prices for propane in Mexico are 50 cents or more a gallon cheaper than in the U.S., which has resulted in hundreds of the illegal Mexican cylinders being brought into Texas as citizens take advantage of the price difference.
Citizens who buy such tanks should

TDA Charges Seven With Bid-Rigging

The application licensee of this defendant.
"I know this sort of thing is not at all representative of this agricultural industry," said Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower. "There are 98 special applicators to Texas, and we can't let the shady practices of only four of these undermine the high integrity of the rest. We have asked Attorney General Mattox to pursue this matter to the fullest for the benefit of the industry as a whole and the taxpayers of Texas."

The suit alleges that the defendants agreed to submit non-competitive bids for the contract in violation of the Sherman Antitrust Act and that they submitted bids containing fraudulent information. As a result of the defendant's actions, the state suffered delays in the program and substantial financial expense, the suit contends.

Named as defendants in the suit are Champion Sprayers, Inc. of Friona and two of its directors, Richard Glenn Herring, also of Friona, and James Haskell Corbett of Clovis, New Mexico; Louis Steer Spraying, Inc., Agri-Sprayers, Inc. and Longhorn Spraying, Inc., all of Muleshoe; and Charles Campbell, whose address is unknown.
The suit was wound up paying about 10¢ less than the original program for at least a month, so we're not talking just nickels and dimes from the state treasury," Hightower said. "Add it up, and it means they have cheated the people of Texas out of more than $100,000."
Some people rob you with a gun, and others use a fountain pen, or so went the old Woody Guthrie song. Both are equally serious, and Attorney General Mattox said he intends to do everything possible to recover the treble damages provided by the law.

LPC Enters Donor, Recipient Management

Castroville, Texas — Embryo transfer has taken the purebred cattle industry by storm over the past few years, and will play a much larger role in the future.

There is probably no greater concentration of those involved in embryo transfer work to the east than in the Madina Valley surrounding the South Texas town of Castroville.

Recognizing this, the Livestock Performance Center (LPC), located for its bull performance testing and marketing, has entered into a new area — donor and recipient management program.

LPC Manager Homer Higdon said he went into this program by accident. He said that Ken Perayn, owner of Medina Valley A.I. Lab, and Harley Snyder, Ph.D., called and asked him if the LPC could manage some recipient cows.

"They sent us 154 recipient cows and we were just going to breed them," Higdon said. "Next thing I know they were putting embryos in them."

Higdon said that the LPC is the ideal place for anyone wanting to keep recipient cows. One reason is that the cost of feeding and caring for the cows is a facility such as theirs is much cheaper than a breeder trying to keep a herd of recipient cows at the ranch. Another reason is because the LPC is centrally located to many veterinarians who do this type of work, so travel costs are kept to a minimum.

The LPC also has facilities for the actual transplanting. "We are very flexible," Higdon said. "We have the facilities to work the cattle here and we are going to build another."

The LPC has a capacity for 500 cows, and will sell recipient cows.

Another project the LPC is working on is an artificial insemination management program. In this A.I. program the LPC will take the cattle in, feed, manage, ride twice a day, and then do the A.I. work for the breeder.

This program will work well with the donor and recipient program for much the same reason — the cost is that you want the cows to breed as soon as possible.

"We can feed them right, get them in shape, and get them cycling so we can get them bred," Higdon said. "We can manage so A.I. program better here."

For more information on either of the new programs, or for performance testing bulls, contact Homer Higdon at the Livestock Performance Center, P.O. Box 520, Castroville, Tex. 78009, phone 512/877-8820 (office) or 512/887-8802.

Phillips Petroleum Recipient Of First AQHA Honorary Membership

Phillips Petroleum Company of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, a long-time sponsor of the American Quarter Horse Association World Championship Show, has become the first recipient of an American Quarter Horse Association Honorary Membership Award.

Presentation of the honor came at the AQHA 1983 World Championship Show in Tulsa, Oklahoma on August 8.

AQHA President Jack Anderson of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma presented Phillips Petroleum representative Don Brund the framed certificate certifying the company an honorary lifetime member of the Association.

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to present the very first AQHA Honorary Membership to a company which has been associated with the show (AQHA Championship Show) from the beginning in America in 1972," Anderson said.

He added Phillips Petroleum's role as a class sponsor has enabled the show to continue in its successful mode. More than $80,000 has been donated to the show through the company's sponsorship.

Phillips Petroleum has sponsored the show during the past 18 years. Funds from these sponsorships go toward purchasing expensive awards presented to class winners and assisting with ever-rising show management costs.

AQHA Honorary Memberships are awarded to individuals or companies who have contributed in special ways to the growth and prosperity of the Quarter Horse industry and the AQHA. Recipients of the awards are selected each year at the Association's annual convention.

"Dean Of American Public Speakers" To Address BBU Members

The man who has been called the greatest public speaker in the United States has accepted an invitation to address members of the Beefmaster Breeders Universal at the annual convention this fall. The BBU meeting will take place October 28-29, 1983, at New Orleans, Louisiana.

Dr. Kenneth McFarland, a native of Kansas, is acknowledged to be the nation's most eloquent and effective spokesman for what is commonly called the "American System." He is the recipient of Freedom Foundation's prestigious National Leadership Award, as well as many other forms of recognition.

Whether he's before a farm group, salesmen or industrial leaders, McFarland's incredibly wide range of interests makes it easy for him to "talk the language" of the group. His speeches reflect the depth of his broad experience after more than a quarter century of covering America.

Lone Star Has Champion Female At Billings Hereford Show

The Yellowstone Exhibition, Billings, officially opened the 1983-84 Hereford Register of Merit show season. ROM competition was extremely strong as exhibitors from 15 states led out 153 head of top quality breeding stock before Judge Jack Evans, Nowata, Ok.

Judge Evans chose the very popular two-year-old show bull, L1 Challenger, for the grand champion bull honors. "Challenger" is owned by Harrell Hereford Ranch, Baker, Or.; Wilson Hereford, Thermopolis, Wyo., and K & B Hereford, Onida, S.D. BR Advance 150 ET, the second-place two-year-old and reserve senior champion bull, won the reserve grand champion bull title for his owners, Robin Coulter, Bridgeport, N.H.; Murry J. Brown & Son, Lodgegrass, Mt., and Scott Holden Hereford, Abbeville, Mt.

In a very tough heifer competition, Lone Star Hereford Ranch, Henrietta, Tx., won out with its first-place early spring yearling and senior champion female, Lone Star Domett 86C. Judge Evans selected the top senior calf and heifer calf champion, Miss T Classic L1 665 ET, owned by Morgan & Marcotte Cattle Co., Badgwick, Co., and Tom Dean Hereford, Cherokee, Tx., for the reserve grand champion heifer honors.

The progeny of herd sire 8C Classic ET, captured the champion get-of-sire trophy for Morgan & Marcotte Cattle Co. in the group exhibit classes. Lone Star Hereford Ranch pooled its many entries to take the top prize in the best-of-head competition.

Premiums will be paid on five places in each class and match the premiums paid in the ROM show. Register of Merit points will be awarded to the stars of the winning leads.

Bulls to the truck load show will not be eligible to show at either the ROM Show. Bulls will be stalled in Barn 3, but shown in Barn 8 of the Fort Worth facilities.

Two caterpillars were crawling across the grass when a butterfly flew over them. They looked up, and one nudged the other and said: "You couldn't get me up in one of those things for a million dollars!"

Born's Take Both Female Champions in Colorado Hereford Show

The Colorado State Fair, Pueblo, drew over 80 head of quality Hereford breeding stock. The entries, representing several states, demonstrated the strength and quality found throughout the Hereford breed today.

Judge John Bidder, Callaway, N.H., selected RC Ripper 8024, a son of GE Domino 560, owned by Rain Cloud Ranch, Inc., Waverly, Ka., for the grand champion bull trophy. The reserve grand champion bull was T Classic LI 555 ET, the top senior yearling and senior champion bull. The reserve grand champion, exhibited by Morgan & Marcotte Cattle Co., Sedgwick, and Tom Deas Hereford, Cherokee, Tx., was sired by SC Classic ET.

Born Herefords, Follett, Tx., walked away with both the grand and reserve grand champion female banners. Taking the purple grand champion banner was Tex Li Adeline 2280, the first-place late spring yearling daughter of Le Grand Domino 7184, "David".

Tex Li Adeline 2280, the first-place senior calf and heifer calf champion, was the reserve grand champion female banner to add to Born's winnings.

Higgins Hereford Ranch, Nowata, OK, and Morgan & Marcotte Cattle Co. combined their entries to win the get-of-size class with the progeny of SC Classic ET. Higgins Hereford Ranch also took the top prize for the best six-head group. A pen-of-three bull competition was held for the first time at the Colorado State Fair. Biggs Hereford Ranch swept the champion pen honors.

Fullblood Vaccination Near Million Mark

Austin—About one million calves have been vaccinated this fiscal year in Texas for brucellosis control, according to estimates from the Texas Animal Health Commission. The fiscal year ends Aug. 31, and it is expected that we will have about a million calves vaccinated. In fact, we have even surpassed the million mark by a thousand head," Dr. John W. Hootcomb, executive director, Texas Animal Health Commission, said.

Estimates thus far indicate 996,650 calves will have been vaccinated by Sept. 31. Whatever the final figure, this is the highest number of calves vaccinated in a year in Texas for brucellosis.

This year there were 877,637 calves vaccinated. That represented 55 percent of all eligible calves vaccinated. Figures for this fiscal year should be available around Sept. 15.

We have seen a steady increase in number of calves vaccinated in the past few years. In 1979, for example, there were 557,788 calves vaccinated. Our estimate for this year will be approximately double that of just three years ago," Dr. Hootcomb said.

Producers are encouraged in sea this year in vaccination from producers. Vaccination is a key element in the Texas brucellosis program. We expect this trend will continue as producers learn about the vaccination, Dr. Hootcomb said.

These advantages: a vaccinated animal can move more freely; vaccinated cattle are worth more; vaccination is a good investment.

Another new concept in the genetic improvement of Red Brangus cattle will be a feature of the Paleface Ranch Heifer sale to be held Saturday, September 17 at the PFR sale arena.

will be at the New Tulsa Stockyard, 918 N. 161st East Avenue off I-44.

Each of the 100 heifers offered will be selected for the potential to improve any breeder's herd. We want to encourage every buyer to utilize our proven genetics, according to Mike Levi, owner of Paleface Ranch, so we are offering a "guaranteed pregnancy program" in the buyer of every heifer.

Next spring the heifer may, at the buyer's option, be delivered to the Elgin Breeding Service, Elgin, Texas, to be artificially inseminated to PFR Oscar's Improver 77/5, a certified meat sire. Heifers will be pastured at Elgin at buyer's expense until she is palpated safe in calf in the 77/5 bull. "This will ensure each buyer the opportunity to acquire the genetics of the greatest proven bull in the history of the breed," Levi said.

All heifers will also have the usual semen rights to 77/5 or any other PFR herd sire; however, the guaranteed pregnancy offering is restricted to 77/5.

Sale headquarters will be the Wyndham Southpark Hotel, located at the corner of IH-35 South and Highway 71 in Austin. For reservations call 512/448-2222 or Mike Levi at 512/264-1711.

The Chicago Board of Trade is in the midst of a genuine supply battle for grain. This is especially true for soybeans. Late last week soybeans were selling at 100 cents per bushel closing limit down on Friday. The market was under a rain for the week-end. As it turned out no rain was received and soybeans rallied $1.20 per bushel over the several trading days. There are rumors that Brazil will suspend

East Texas Fair Opens Sept. 26

Gates will swing open for the 64th annual East Texas Fair Sept. 26 for a six day run which officials are hoping will top last year's record-setting 171,000 attendance.

Fair Manager Bob Murdoch said exhibit and concession space has been booked for weeks, and "we only wish we had more barn space for livestock entries."

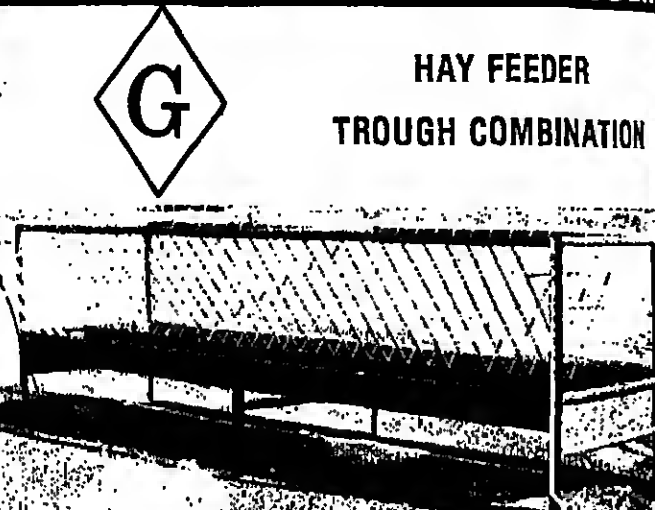

Cattle entries from several states will be parading nearly 1,000 head of breeding animals before judges and spectators as they compete for $100,000 in premiums and ribbons. The Texas Polled Hereford association will hold its show on Sept. 27. Other breeds that will draw exhibitors from near and far include Brahman, Shorthorn, Angus, and FFA exhibitors will show their cattle the final two days of the fair.

Maine-Anjou sale will be held on Friday preceding opening of the fair.

Free shows will be presented right on the outdoor stage and in the large auditorium, featuring country western bands and a wide variety of other entertainment. The famous Zoo from Hot Springs, Ark., will return to the fair.

It also denies th' Govmint Treasury some hard cash, which it certainly can wiff use.

Some of th' boys in th' Split & Whittlars Club was tawkin' about these revollin' developments th' other day and so moons recalled when miscreants who landed in jail and had unpaid fines at th' same time had to lay out those fines at so many dollars per day. Insid of a year in jail, or less, they had to serve th' jail time, but also so many atry days to retire their monetary debt to Saselody.

Now if one of them of boys who gits hit with a $60,000 fine and claims pauper rights because he has hid out his valuables with his wife or some other buddy, had to lay out that much more time, this kind of shenanigan would certainly come to a screeching halt.

Another of th' Split & Whittlars wonders what ever becoms of th' vagrancy laws. Used to be that th' hard worlde' citizens had little or no patience with people who quelled as bums because they had no evidence they were gainfully employed and no viable means of support. It was agreed that th' way thangs are now just about everyone has a viable means of support in th' Welfare State we live in, no vagrancy must have died a natcheral death along with salutespect.

A "little ear" on feeder calves has become an important marketing factor in recent years.

Some feeders are demanding that their order buyers select calves with some Brahman in their genetic make-up.

We think one of the best tools available to put a "little ear" on your feeder calves is to turn out a Beefmaster bull.

Contact the N.B.A. for a list of breeders who have breeding age Beefmaster bulls for sale.
